Introducing GlamourGirl

• 'Spirit' has been an integral part of our Sacred Heart experience. With it, we have learned to face each challenge with courage and conviction and pure enthusiasm. Glamour Girl represents the spirit of the SHSM student. Look for her throughout the book as she embodies the different facets of spirit portrayed throughout our community.

Headmistress' Address

This year's editors, Kathryn Palmer and Alexandra Lantosh, have made every effort to capture your Sacred Heart experience, and I thank them for their dedication. Each class brings their own chapter to our Sacred Heart book and the Class of 2006 is no exception. Over the past five years each of you has lived the Sacred Heart experience in your own particular way and now, with Courage et Confiance, you move on to the next stage of your life.

You have chosen the yellow rose as a symbol of your graduating class. This rose represents your high school years and the friendships that you have kindled. Draw strength from all that you have received from a Sacred Heart education and I pray that each time you see a yellow rose, you will remember fondly your high school experience. May God watch over you and keep you safe and may you come to realize that you are an important part of His plan.

Elaine Brooks
Headmistress

Dear Class of 2006,

For five years, you have impressed, charmed and occasionally surprised us; and you are now ready to strike out in new directions. The path you choose to follow will not be straight, you cannot know at the beginning exactly where it will lead, and at times you may have to alter your course. Wherever you go, whatever you do, keep in mind the timeless advice of Albert Einstein: try not to become a person of success; rather become a person of value.

Jean Filipovich, Assistant Headmistress

Memories from the Heart, an appropriate title to describe a book that you will refer to for years to come, a book which chronicles your final year at The Sacred Heart School of Montreal. Enjoy the contents of these pages, they can be relived each and every time that you open this book. Congratulations to every graduate of the class of 2006, and don't forget your first class reunion in 2011.

Peter Kousik, Director of Studies

How quickly five years have gone by. Those little secondary ones have grown into mature young women, ready to take on all of life's challenges. I wish you all smooth sailing, but when the seas get rough, may your courage and conviction help you make wise choices. You are a special class and each of you has flavoured the school with your gifts and talents. Now, go and share them with the larger community and make a difference...a difference for good.

I will miss you.
With love,

Rosanne Del Torto, Director of Students

"The mind is not a vessel to be filled, but a hearth to be lighted." While you have absorbed much in many subject areas while at Sacred Heart, I hope you also take from here faith in yourself, enthusiasm with which to pursue your life goals, the strength to always be gentle, and the wisdom to always be kind. These will help light your way on life's path..... and your way home. As Agnes Deans Cameron once said "A child's individuality is the divine spark in him. Let it burn."

Colleen Bronson, Director of Advancement and Alumnae Affairs

To the Graduating Class of 2006

Five years of hard work, mingled with making strong friendships, has paid off for all of you, the "Class of 2006." As you venture to the next stage in your lives and studies, remain proud of your Sacred Heart roots and remember that your future achievements will serve to enhance this institution. Leaving Sacred Heart will be difficult. I am also leaving on retirement at the close of this school year and I will, therefore, share with you the loss of this caring environment. The memories, however, will remain for a life time. Always be good to yourselves, and respectful of others. Good luck to all of you and God bless.

Our Staff:

Alex, I can remember the first time we stepped into our room and came up with the countless reasons why we were MEANT to be editors! Looking back on the pages of our book, I realize that there is no one I would have rather gone through this journey with other than you. You are one of the reasons I've made it so far, and our book would not have been complete without you. You are like a sister to me and I cherish every moment we've shared together.

Ms. Lessey, thank you for your guidance and patience. You are everything we could have asked for in an adviser.

Ladies, enjoy every page of this book and never forget the memories and friendships you have made within these walls. I hope that our memory book will serve to effectively encompass all aspects of our Sacred Heart life and will be a true reminder of every way we survived Sacred!!

What an incredible journey this has been. Kattie, you were the one who convinced me to apply for this position in the first place; looking back, I'm glad that you did. I thank you for your creativity and enthusiasm; you have been my inspiration. Despite the many ups and downs of Yearbook Land and the fact that I would like nothing more than to completely obliterate the word "Deadline" from the English language, I will never forget this experience.

Ms. Lessey, you've been wonderful, thank you for your help, your guidance, and most importantly, you patience! "Good Times".

To the grads of '06, if this book allows you to reminisce and smile upon your high school years, then we know we have succeeded. Enjoy!

Sports Day

Nothing like some friendly competition between the Houses to start off the new school year. A great theme, original games and lots of fun awaited us on the mountain. This year's Sports Day was a great success!

Dear Diary.

Today was my first day of high school! It was all so exciting. There were these older girls called prefects that helped me to find all of my classes and wore those neat blue shirts. They had this weird vocabulary with words like détente and goutier that I'm going to need to get used to.

At first, I was scared I wouldn't make any friends, but everyone was so nice. I can't wait until tomorrow. We're going to have our first house meeting of the year which is supposed to be a lot of fun. I'll let you know how it went and what my house head is like.

Bye for now ★

● SEC II RETREAT

Our Secondary II Retreat was quite a memorable experience. After watching a great movie, we shared stories (especially Ms. Zakem), stuffed our faces (in a ladylike way, not to worry Ms. Del Torto!) and went wild in the field near the lake at L'Ermitage St-Croix. We will always remember our Retreat; it's a day filled with fun and awesome memories we will always cherish. We can't wait until next year!

SEC IV RETREAT

On April 6, the secondary IV class enjoyed our last retreat at L'Érmitage St-Croix. We watched Life as a House starring the ever charming Hayden Christensen, ate chicken fingers and fries, sang the usual inspirational songs, and spent a much needed relaxing day with our friends. From the enthusiastic bus ride to the period of quiet reflection, this retreat was a definite success. Next year it's on to secondary V and our climactic two day retreat!

ACTIVITIES

Girls for the Cure

We know how to walk the walk!!

The 10th annual Girls for the Cure walk was, yet again, success. Though the speakers' words brought tears to our eyes, the thought that all the funds we had raised would be going towards such a wonderful cause brought joy to our hearts. Mix 96 provided lively music for the girls from SHSM, QAA, ECS, Trafalgar and Villa Maria who had gathered atop Mount Royal once having completed the walk. Though tired after having walked 5 km, everyone knew that it had all been for a good cause.

THE BEAT--SPORTS

The 2005-2006 athletic year has come to an end. This year, the girls have shown great passion and spirit on and off the courts and fields. They celebrated their victories, and accepted their losses with dignity. A special thank you to all the teachers who have sacrificed their time in order to commit themselves to coaching. We could not have done it without your support.

Stratford

Stratford, a small town nestled among forests, has brought us more cherished memories than any of us could have imagined. We saw Into the Woods, a 70's rendition of As You Like It, and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, which we enjoyed very much. To top it all off, we still had time to shop! There were plenty of laughs when it came time for the Shakespearean insults workshop ...with Mrs. Brooks no less! Future grades should make sure to bring spare change because Winnie the Pooh cell phone accessories were a popular purchase. Months later, clips of "Going to the Festival!" are still echoing through the halls. Is this not what a field trip is all about?

Sec 5 Retreat

"You are the daughters I never had; you are the class of 2006!" J. Mastro

Early on a Thursday morning, we assembled in the reception room, excited to discover exactly what goes on at a Secondary V retreat. We spent long hours playing games, watching movies and learning about the 'Power of One'. There was much laughter, and, of course, many tears. Late at night we snuck into each other's rooms, sharing candy and stories. The "Blues Notes" we wrote will be reminders of this wonderful experience. "A moment lasts all of a second, but the memory lives on forever."

Counting down the days...

TOP 10 THINGS TO DO BEFORE GRAD

1- Tell everyone how much they mean to you.

2- Let go of all grudges

3- Exchange phone numbers and emails

SACRED

AIM
The aim of this game is to graduate from Sacred Heart by "conquering" the school. To do so, you must buy all of the school properties with house points that you will accumulate all throughout the game.

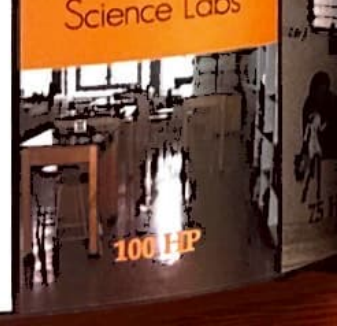

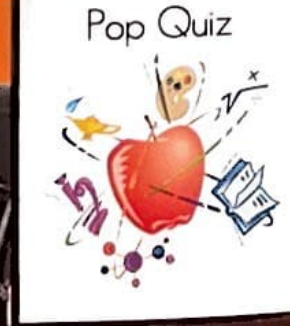

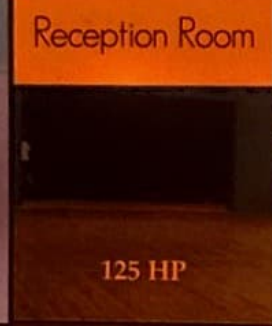

GAME PLAY

- 1- To begin, the treasurer gives you 1000 house points.
- 2- Roll the die and move your token the amount of spaces indicated.
 - If you land on a property space that has not yet been purchased, you can choose to either "shot-gun!" it buy paying the amount of house points indicated, or put it "up for grabs". If you choose to put it "up for grabs," any other player is permitted to exchange house points with the school treasurer. The player willing to give the most receives the property.
 - If you land on a property square that is already owned, pay the owner the first two digits of the "shotgun" price in house points.

Sacred Heart Community Chest

Roll a die and match the number with a question.

- 1- Caught chewing gum. Go to detention
- 2- Win a 1st place in a competition. Get 100 house points and visit the Large Parlor.
- 3- Late library book. Pay 20 house points.
- 4- Go to the nearest administration office. If you pass the Penfield door, collect 200 house points.
- 5- Bring recycling to the art room. Collect 30 house points
- 6- Break one of Ms. Antonini's beakers. Go to detention.

POPOLY

If you land on the Detention square, you are not required stay there after your turn.

If you land on "Go to Detention" square, move your token to the Detention space without collecting 200 house points if you pass the Penfield Door. To get out of Detention, either roll a 6 or give 50 house points to the treasurer. If you do not roll a 6 or give the house points after 3 turns, you must give the 50 house points after which you can roll.

If you land on "Free Period", collect 100 house points from the treasurer.

If you land on a "Pop Quiz" or "Sacred Heart Community Chest" space, match the number you rolled with its respective question and follow the instructions given.

Pop Quiz

Roll a die and match the number with a question.

- 1- Act in Christmas Wishes. Collect 50 house points.
- 2- No house bar. Lose 5 house points.
- 3- Raise pledges for the Walk for the Cure. Collect 30 house points.
- 4- You feel sick and want to go home. Go to the School Office.
- 5- Cookies for detente. Run to the Dining Hall.
- 6- Ms. Del Torto catches you with a rolled kilt. Lose 10 house points.

Valedictory Address

Marion Gale-Sheldon

"It's the end of your world as you know it, but you'll be fine." This was the frightening and yet somehow reassuring message that our teachers conveyed to us with only a week left of our high school lives. High school is a secure world that we have come to know and love. We have been living the past five years of our lives in this sheltered little world but the door has finally been opened, and it's up to us to take whichever path we will.

There is however something that holds us back; something that makes graduation a bittersweet occasion. That something is you, the class of 2006. This was reflected in the comments made during our final GI. We all agree that this school is special because of our wonderful classmates. You are truly an amazing group of girls and the best friends anyone could wish for! We have been through so much together that it is hard to imagine coping without this wonderful support group. Let's try to keep in touch!

Over the years, we've come to describe ourselves as the unluckiest class because we were the first to wear ties all five years, and the first to write an essay on the History of Quebec and Canada exam. But when you think about it, we never had to be table monitors! Joking aside, I believe that we were truly blessed with amazing classmates, outstanding teachers, and of course a great school. Sacred Heart has provided us with wonderful opportunities. We can now show off the best calves in the city because of the numerous flights of stairs we had to climb every day. We also received a well-rounded education that taught us much more than just reading, writing and 'rithmetic. Best of all, we had superior teachers who knew just how to motivate us to accomplish the most difficult tasks. They were able to entertain us, encourage us, console us and support us whenever we needed them. How many other schools have teachers that will stay until six PM to coach a sport, help you with a problem or simply to chat? Many teachers have come and gone in our short time here but each of them holds a special place in our memories and our hearts.

Besides the teachers, you are what make this school the place it is. As much as Sacred Heart has become a part of you, you have become a part of it. We have all contributed in our own way to this school, even those who are no longer with us. Some of us have repainted Barat Hall, played on as many sports teams as possible, participated in debating or public speaking tournaments, worked hard on model UN, built a robot or even created a journal, video, kiosk or website to go with it. Others of us have sung in the choir, or sung alone in the staircase, been a member of the City House Players, started a newspaper, spoken in BLCs, tried to retrieve a livestrong bracelet from a classroom window, protested against the new white polos and, organized walkathon, carnival or girls for the cure. Our amazing prefects have also been there to guide us through the most challenging days. Each and every one of us has changed this school to make it what it is today. It has truly become our second home.

The Sacred Heart has shaped us no matter how much we may have resisted. We might think that we're leaving the school but SHSM will never really leave us. Thirty years from now, we may just find ourselves sitting in McDonald's, reaching for a fork to eat our fries. We will also be the rare women who stand up to greet guests as they enter the room, those who hold doors and those who sit up straight with their feet one in the instep of the other.

We have been together through the good times and the bad. We have been there for each other through laughter, through tears, through heartbreaks, and through the happiest moments of our lives. We've accomplished many things in the years we've been here. And just when we thought we could not possibly do any more work, we somehow got even busier. But we managed to pull through and have now come to the moment where we can actually say 'I survived Sacred'. Sacred Heart has empowered us to become the best women we can be. Now, we are ready to head out into the real world. Thanks to five years of grueling education in and outside the classrooms, we will be able to achieve our dreams without fear of failure. To the grads of 06, "Let's make the best out of our lives!"

Kylie, you have made us proud.

A job well done!

The best is yet to come,
Don't lose sight of your goals.

Believe in yourself;
believe in your dreams.

You can do it;
you have the power
within to make it happen.
Best of luck with all future
endeavours.

Love always,
Mom, Dad & Chrysten
